

HIGHER EDUCATION IN THE WORLD 6

16-18 November 2015, Editorial Team Meeting

Saint Leopold Building - GUNi Offices

Agenda

16 Monday 09:30 hrs, Reception at the Recinte Sant Pau main entrance

1

09:30 – 13:00 hrs. Report status

09:30 – 11:00 hrs. Editors' debate on the abstracts. Conceptual and contents evaluation. Debate on the expected outputs of the Report.

- Members of the ET are expected to debate about the current material we got from authors and to evaluate how this first material is covering the expectations and what would be needed to complete, reorient or balance.
- Analysis of the balance in key variables. (Backgrounds balance, gender, region, profile and North-South...)

11.00 – 12:00 hrs. Debate on how to complete the core index.

- Synthesis of the previous Reports
- Good practices, boxes, special contributions, founders' introduction, paper UNIVERSIA.
- GUNi projects: Catalan Group Project and UNESCO Chairs (only mentioned)
- Latin America and the Caribbean chapter.
- Others

12.00 – 13:00 hrs. Issues with no authors and agreement on new authors.
GUNi will provide a list of possible new authors, but the Editorial Team is invited to bring and share new names as well.

13:00 - 14:30 hrs Lunch Break

14:30 - 16:30 hrs Graphical Report Structure

- Concept, publics and structure of the publication.
- Title

GUNi will provide recommendations on the first issue.

18:00 - 19:30 hrs Presentation: "Community Based Research: Strengthen partnerships and evolving best practices in Higher Education Institutions" B. Hall and R Tandon
Sala Ramón y Cajal. Rectorate Building. University of Barcelona.

17 Thursday

09:30 – 11:00 hrs. Catalan Group Project

11.00 – 13:00 hrs. Publishing house and distribution of the report.

- a) Analysis of the different editorial strategies (sales vs. distribution)
- b) Analysis of the different editorial houses
- c) Price of the report, sales criteria.
- d) Strategies to reach several publics: academics, policymakers and policy-takers.

The ET is expected to reach and agreement on the best option for editing, publishing and worldwide distribution of the Report. GUNi will provide a reflection paper on this matter, but the ET members are invited to be quite active sharing previous experiences or references on this key issue. Examples from other International Reports strategies will be very welcome.

13:00 - 14:30 hrs Lunch Break

15.00 – 17.00 hrs Editorial Team internal issues and 2016 schedule

- a) 2016 tentative work agenda
- b) Criteria for the papers reviewing.
- c) Agreement on the procedure for papers reviewing.

18 Wednesday

09:30 – 11:00 hrs. UNESCO Chairs Project

11.00 – 12:30 hrs. Academic Seminar. Agenda, budget and financial opportunities.

The ET is expected to debate about the content, participants and the expected outputs of the Academic Seminar.

The ET is expected to discuss possible founders for the Seminar and to agree on its viability.

12:30 – 13:00 hrs. Further comments and next steps.

13:00 – 15.00 hrs Closing Lunch