

Community-Based Research & Learning Symposium MARCH 21/22, 2016

A two-day event featuring workshops and a key-note lecture to explore community-based research and learning partnerships. An opportunity for university staff and community-based organizations and social innovators to network and examine approaches to construct research and learning partnerships with community partners as equal participants.

GUEST SPEAKERS: Budd Hall & Rajesh Tandon
Co-Chairs, UNESCO Chairs in Community-Based
Research and Social Responsibility in Higher Education

MARCH 21, 2-4PM: Teaching and Learning CBR Practices

MARCH 21, 7-9PM: CBR and Struggles for Democratization of Knowledge

MARCH 22, 2-4PM: Learning Citizenship in Everyday Life: Contributions of Community-Based Participatory Research

SUPPORTED BY:

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
FACULTY OF ARTS

COMMUNITY
SERVICE-
LEARNING
CSL

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
OFFICE OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT
(RESEARCH)

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
FACULTY OF EDUCATION

CONTACT: David Peacock, CSL Executive Director, peacock1@ualberta.ca